

Dan French, Strictly Spouting

Industrious bloke that he is, Dan already has a great website. But he needs to market himself even more. A custom video and enhanced Yellow solution will really boost his online presence. So that's exactly what we're doing.

Kuldeep Arora, India Gate

Kuldeep and his wife Shivani would love more Kiwis to discover their authentic North Indian dishes. With a website, custom video and a Facebook page, they can share their secret with everyone.

Siddhi Smith, Encore Fashion Recycle

Selling pre-loved designer fashions is no easy task. Siddhi also needs to keep in touch with customers she's selling on behalf of. We're setting her up with a website, a video and a Facebook page so she can talk online.

Bronwen Hughes, Urban Flowers

Instead of waiting for a special occasion, Bronwen would love more people to buy her bouquets simply because they enjoy them. We're showing Aucklanders how beautiful they are online with a custom digital solution.

Roland Sergeant, Sergeant Decorators Ltd

Registered Master Painter Roland can work magic with a roller and brush. But when it comes to the online world he's pretty lost. We're making it easy with a digital package, tailored to his business needs.

Erin Harrison, Creative Mischief

Creative. Youthful. Fun. Erin's entertainment company specialises in face and body painting. She needs to boost her online presence so we're making a custom video to help her business show up in more Google searches.
